THIS WEEK IN WORSHIP

Tuesday, March 11 - Dr. John Harnish, First United Methodist Church Birmingham, MI

The Rev. Dr. John E. Harnish is the Senior Pastor of First United Methodist Church, Birmingham, MI. He came to FUMC Birmingham after serving as pastor of FUMC Ann Arbor, MI. Prior to that appointment he was the Associate General Secretary of the Division of Ordained Ministry with the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church, based in Nashville, Tennessee. In that role he was responsible for the denomination's work in theological education, the training of pastors, and other issues related to ordained ministry. He was instrumental in the formation of the newest United Methodist seminaries in the world — those in Moscow and Tallinn, Estonia. He continues to serve on the Board of Trustees for the Baltic Methodist Theological Seminary in Estonia.

Jack and Judy love to travel and also love their "up north" home on Platte Lake. They love antiques - every piece of furniture has a story, beginning with the wooden wagon, which originally belonged to Judy's father. It has served as a coffee table in every one of their homes. They love theater, reading, and time with their kids.

Wednesday, March 12 - MidWeek Eucharist

Thursday, March 13 - Dr. Marilyn Elliot, Chaplain to Students and Families

Marilyn Elliot first arrived at ATS from Calgary, Alberta, Canada as the wife of a Beeson Pastor in 1995. She was accepted as a Beeson Pastor in 2001, making her the first spouse of a Beeson Pastor to enter the program, graduating in 2006. Marilyn spends her energies seeking to be a life-giver to those within her sphere of influence, empowering and coaching persons to seek wellness.

Marilyn has extensive pastoral and ministry experience, serving alongside her husband Steve as preacher, teacher, and leader for 26 years. They currently lead First Alliance Church of Lexington. Steve and Marilyn have three children.

*Chapel is held three times per week on Tuesday, Wednesday, & Thursday at 11 a.m. in Estes Chapel unless otherwise noted.

COMMUNITY NOTICES

Women Preparing for Ministry don't miss this great opportunity to attend the Eighth International Wesleyan/Holiness Women Clergy Conference, "Come to the Water, Sit at Jesus' Feet." It brings together several hundred women to worship, learn, network, and celebrate God's call on their lives. This year the conference is April 10-13 in Nashville TN, making the event very accessible to us. Open the attached file for more details on the conference. The good news is that there will be several scholarships available in the amount of $200.00 each. To apply for a scholarship, contact the office of Marilyn Elliott.

Note: the reduced early registration rate is available only until March 10. The conference rate for the hotel is guaranteed only through March 25. Up until one week before the conference, registration fees will be refunded with only a $25.00 charge. So, if you would like to attend, I would encourage you to go ahead and register by the early registration date. You may register on line at www.cometothewater.org. For the sake of coordinating travel and room reservations to save on costs, email Cathy Stonehouse.

FEATURES

- Dear Robbie,

Where have you been? March Madness is coming up - what techniques should I employ to watch/listen to games, while pretending to be interested in class?

Sincerely,

Almost Good Student Guy

- Cultivating Pastoral Imagination: Creative Practices of Faith with Writing

The Psalmists of the Old Testament desired deeply to commune with the Creator through words and poetry. There is something sacred and therapeutic about writing down our praises and laments, our admirations and grievances. How can the reading and writing of a psalm effect the Spirit? What role does creativity play in cultivating an atmosphere of contemplation in an individual? What is the role of language in communion with God? How do writers of faith fit in to contemporary literary culture? And how can writing aid a minister on the never-ending odyssey into the deep heart of God?

Every Monday this March (10, 17, 24, 6-8pm) Asbury Seminary students will have the chance to engage in a dialogue with the Creator. Writer, critic, and part-time Asbury College professor David Harrity (davidharrity.blogspot.com)...
