FEATURES

Treasures of God's Work – Rev. Bob Wannall's Calling

My call grew over time as I became more involved in the life of the church. My wife, Cindy, and I did not attend until we had children. They were our impetus; they ought to be in Sunday school. We made great, lifelong friends, learned what the faith we'd grown up in was really all about, and began teaching adults and working with our youth. We traveled to many churches on teams to conduct Lay Witness Weekends. God was speaking to me, I see now, all along; giving me experiences and opportunities to grow in faith and understanding to prepare me to hear -- and answer -- the call into full time vocational ministry.

We began attending church in February of 1978. I track my conversion to December of 1979, my call to ministry to August 1985 (and specifically to Asbury Seminary to prepare). We took a year to explore the call and prepare to go, and we departed for ATS in August 1986. I returned to Florida under appointment in June 1990, so this marks my 20th year. Still having a great time most of the time. And God is faithful to bring me through the deserts of the other times.

Bob is a 1990 alum from ATS. He is currently serving St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Ocala, FL .
